Is an amendment covering the same matter embodied in an amendment previously tabled in order?.....	128
Can an amendment be considered when it covers matter previously passed upon?.....	129
An amendment lost on a second reading of a bill is in order on a third reading.....	129
Because the House has adopted an amendment is no reason why it should not consider another one embodying the same matter.....	129
Because an amendment was ruled out of order at a certain stage of the proceedings is no reason why it might not be in order at another time.....	130
If an amendment is lost or tabled, another one of the same import is not in order on the same reading or stage of the bill.....	130
An amendment is not in order if a former amendment containing the same matter has been tabled.....	130
An amendment to strike out matter previously inserted in a bill at the same reading is not in order unless reconsideration is ordered.....	130
It is not necessary to correct a typographical error in a printed bill if the original bill is correct.....	131
Not in order to offer an amendment to the caption of a bill until all amendments to the body of the bill have been considered and disposed of.....	131
Though an amendment should be voted down, it would be in order on a subsequent reading of the bill.....	131

The House can instruct a committee.	159

P

PERSONAL INTEREST—

Of member in legislation.	159
-----------------------------------	-----

PREVIOUS QUESTION—

By consent or by agreement, an amendment may be offered after the previous question has been ordered.	160
Previous question must be confined to motions actually before the House.	160
Cannot adjourn under the previous question.	160
The House having ordered the consideration of the appropriation bill by departments, the previous question could not be ordered on the engrossment of the bill without rescinding the order or completing the consideration of the bill. . . .	161
The fact that there has not been a free and full discussion of a matter does not prevent the asking of the previous question.	161
No motion is in order while the House is operating under the previous question except a motion for the reconsideration of the vote by which the previous question was ordered.	161

R

RECESS—

A recess cannot be had when a quorum is not present.	161
The House having recessed does not displace the business of the day; nor does it require the consideration of postponed or special orders set for the calendar day to which the House recessed.	162

RECONSIDERATION—

	Page.
General discussion.....	162-163
A bill may be taken up and considered on final passage notwithstanding a motion to reconsider has been put on the Journal and not acted upon.....	163
Notice to call up a motion to reconsider must be given as required by the rule.....	164
The ordering of the main question can be reconsidered.....	164
The motion to reconsider and table when carried is a final disposition of the matter.....	164
Case where a point of order on a motion to reconsider came too late.....	165
Member must have voted with the prevailing side or he cannot move reconsideration.....	165
During the last three days of the session all motions to reconsider must be disposed of when made.....	165
The House having fixed the number of clerks a resolution to appoint five additional clerks is not in effect a reconsideration of the original resolution.....	166
The previous question will not apply to a motion to reconsider and table.....	166
When a motion to reconsider is put and carried, the proposition which is reconsidered becomes the pending business..	166
The fact that when a Senate bill finally passes the House, after having been amended by the House, and that a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill finally passed was laid on the table, does not stop the House from receding from its amendments to the bill.....	167
To make a motion to reconsider, one must have voted with the prevailing side.....	167
Not in order under previous question.....	167
It is not in order to amend a motion to reconsider.....	167
A motion to reconsider must be made within the time prescribed by the rules.....	167
One day's notice must be given before a motion to reconsider which has been spread on the Journal can be called up...	168
